Aim(s) of Supervision

Clive Huntbach offers safe and contracted supervision, where you can explore concerns and difficulties about your counselling practice in a caring, understanding, and professional relationship. You can explore issues as deeply as you wish, in an atmosphere of respect, safety, and acceptance. Supervision can help you to develop your own inner resources to improve your counselling skills. An integrative approach to supervision is used, primarily based on a person centred perspective. Clive is a member of the British Association for Counselling and Psychotherapy (BACP) and follows their ethical framework for good practice.

Confidentiality

1. The supervisor may keep notes of sessions and these are kept in a confidential and secure manner.
2. The supervisor has the right and duty to breach confidentiality if the he feels the supervisee has acted in an unethical manner or is likely to cause serious harm to self or others.
3. Issues raised in the supervision session may be presented by the supervisor to his consultant supervisor or used in development training.

Frequency of Supervision

Supervision is usually on a monthly basis. However, additional time may be agreed as and when appropriate.

Length of Supervision Sessions

The length of a supervision session is 90 minutes, unless otherwise agreed.

Fee of Supervision Session

A 90 minutes supervision session is provided at the fee of £......

Cancellation

To cancel a supervision session a minimum of 24 hours notice prior to the session has to be given by the supervisee; otherwise the full fee for the session has to be paid.

Termination

Supervision may be terminated by either party at any time.
